

CHANDAIL

NEEDLEWORK

HAPPY NEW YEAR! I HOPE YOU ALL SURVIVED THE HOLIDAYS AND ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO LIFE GETTING BACK TO NORMAL (IF THERE IS SUCH A THING). I AM MAKING SOME NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS FOR CHANDAIL AND HOPE THAT YOU WILL BE AS EXCITED AS I AM.

First, I have decided to start teaching again. I didn't realize how much I missed helping others in a class setting. I am now a part of the teaching "team" and will be formally teaching on Wednesday's from 12:30 to 2:30 and in the evenings from 6:00-8:00.

Second, we are introducing a variety of interesting technique classes on a monthly basis. Generally speaking, these new classes will be offered on Fridays and Saturday afternoons. Read on for additional details.

Third, we are in the midst of developing a blog on Chandail's website. We plan to use this tool to update you on the latest and greatest finds, tips, pictures of finishing, and more! Don't worry...if you don't know anything about blogs we'll teach you how. Just add your name to our email list (if you haven't already) on our website: www.chandailneedlework.com and we'll send you the link. Or just go to our website and look for the blog section on the homepage. We hope to be up and running sometime in January.

And finally, later this Spring we will be introducing a new twist to needlepoint! Chandail is rolling out a new concept: Urban Crafting. We have so many fantastic new ideas on how to integrate other crafting skills into your needlepoint. In addition, we will be teaching sewing classes with machines here in our shop! Going green and repurposing items will also be a large focus of what we conjure up!

To sum up all of these new resolutions, I hope to bring people with common interests together who love to be creative and want to learn something new! The reward is to have fun, build new friendships, and have something to show for your time spent!
